

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO HELP YOU UNDERSTAND AND VOTE ON THE PROPOSAL

Below is a brief overview of the proposal on which you are being asked to vote. Your vote is important, no matter how large or small your holdings may be. Please read the full text of the Proxy Statement, which contains additional information about the proposal, and keep it for future reference.

We appreciate you placing your trust in Delaware Investments and we look forward to continuing to help you achieve your financial goals.

On what proposal am I being asked to vote?

You are being asked to vote on a proposal to approve a new investment advisory agreement (the “New Investment Advisory Agreement”) between your Fund and Delaware Management Company (“DMC”), the current investment adviser to your Fund.

Has the Board of Trustees/Directors (the “Board”) approved the proposal?

Yes. After careful consideration, the Board of your Fund has unanimously approved the proposal and recommends that you vote “FOR” the proposal.

THE PROPOSAL: TO APPROVE A NEW INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

Why am I being asked to approve the New Investment Advisory Agreement?

Your Fund is managed by DMC pursuant to an investment advisory agreement (the “Current Investment Advisory Agreement”). DMC’s parent company has entered into an agreement to sell Delaware Investments, which includes DMC. Due to the requirements of certain Federal securities laws, your Fund’s Current Investment Advisory Agreement will terminate at the closing of the sale of Delaware Investments. As a result, Fund shareholders are being asked to approve the New Investment Advisory Agreement so that DMC may continue to serve as the investment adviser for your Fund.

When would the New Investment Advisory Agreement with DMC take effect?

If approved by Fund shareholders, the New Investment Advisory Agreement would take effect if and when the sale of Delaware Investments is completed.

Who is acquiring Delaware Investments?

Macquarie Bank Limited (or a subsidiary thereof) is acquiring Delaware Investments. Macquarie Bank Limited is a subsidiary of Macquarie Group Limited, a global provider of banking, financial, advisory, investment and fund management services. Macquarie Group Limited is listed on the Australian Securities Exchange and is regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority, the Australian banking regulator. Macquarie Group Limited is acquiring Delaware Investments as part of its strategy to develop a global asset management capability through building a highly regarded team of investment professionals, offering an attractive suite of investment products, and gaining broader access to markets in the United States.

Will the investment advisory fees or other fees change under the New Investment Advisory Agreement?

No. There will be no change to the contractual fee rate applicable to your Fund under the New Investment Advisory Agreement.

Will the New Investment Advisory Agreement be similar to the Current Investment Advisory Agreement?

Yes. Your Fund's New Investment Advisory Agreement will be substantially similar to its Current Investment Advisory Agreement. The New Investment Advisory Agreement requires DMC to provide the same services to your Fund as it does under the Current Investment Advisory Agreement.

How will the sale of Delaware Investments affect Fund shareholders?

The sale of Delaware Investments is not expected to have a significant effect on Fund shareholders. The sale is not currently expected to result in a change in the individuals responsible for the day-to-day management of your Fund or in the operation of your Fund. After the closing of the sale, Delaware Investments will remain headquartered in Philadelphia, will continue to operate in substantially the same manner as at present, and is expected to provide the same services to your Fund as it currently does. Certain other companies in Delaware Investments that provide services to your Fund are also being acquired by Macquarie Group Limited, and those service providers are also expected to continue to provide the same services to your Fund as are currently provided.

Will my Fund's management team change?

No. Under the New Investment Advisory Agreement, DMC will remain the investment adviser for your Fund and the team of portfolio managers managing your Fund is not currently expected to change as a result of the sale.

Has my Fund's Board concluded that approving the New Investment Advisory Agreement is in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders?

Yes. The Board's consideration of the New Investment Advisory Agreement is described in the Proxy Statement. Your Fund's Board has concluded that the New Investment Advisory Agreement is in the best interests of your Fund and its shareholders.

COMMON QUESTIONS AND GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE SHAREHOLDER MEETING

Who is paying the costs of the shareholder meeting and this proxy solicitation and the costs associated with the sale of Delaware Investments?

Macquarie Bank Limited and Lincoln National Investment Companies, Inc., DMC's parent company, have entered into an agreement to reimburse all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Funds related to the shareholder meeting, including the costs of preparing these proxy solicitation materials and soliciting proxies in connection with the meeting (subject to certain limited exceptions).

In order to hold the shareholder meeting, a minimum number of shareholders, or “quorum,” must be present or represented at the meeting. If a quorum is not attained, the meeting must adjourn to a future date. In order to prevent the adjournment of the meeting, as the meeting date approaches, you may receive a telephone call from a representative of Computershare if your votes have not yet been received. Your Fund also may attempt to reach you through multiple mailings to remind you to cast your vote.

How do I sign a proxy card?

- Individual Accounts:* Shareholders should sign exactly as their names appear on the proxy card.
- Joint Accounts:* Either owner may sign, but the name of the person signing should conform exactly to a name shown on the proxy card.
- All Other Accounts:* The person signing must indicate his or her capacity. For example, if Ms. Ann B. Collins serves as a trustee for a trust account or other type of entity, she should sign, “Ann B. Collins, Trustee.”
